

Guidelines for Submission to Komaba Journal of English Education

Komaba Journal of English Education is an annual journal that includes the final papers of the University of Tokyo English Education Program students and articles contributed by the full-time teaching staff of the Department of English Language. When contributing an article, please follow the guidelines for submission as specified below:

- (1) Articles must be the original unpublished work of the author(s).
- (2) Articles should be no longer than 8,000 words, including notes.
- (3) Notes on style:
 - a. Place all notes at the end of the manuscript.
 - b. The style of the manuscript should follow a standard style manual such as the APA Publication Manual.
- (4) The deadline for contributions is the first Thursday of September to be considered for publication in the next issue.
- (5) All submitted papers will go through the review process by the Editorial Board.
- (6) The Department of English Language, College of Arts and Sciences, the University of Tokyo reserves the right to make published papers available in electronic form.
- (7) For any papers based on research involving human subjects, the authors are required to ensure that they have the consent of the subjects and to follow the ethical guidelines of the University of Tokyo. If you have any doubts on this matter, please consult the Editorial Board.